

NIGHTINGALE COLLEGE®
CONFIDENCE • COMPETENCE • COMPASSION

Preparing for Nursing School

Asterisk (*) indicates required classes.

Physical and Life Science

A minimum of 15 semester credits, B- grade or higher to transfer credit.

- *CE Medical Anatomy and Physiology
- *CE Pathophysiology
- CE Biology
- CE Chemistry
- CE Environmental Science
- CE Physics

English and Composition

A minimum of 6 credits. B- grade or higher to transfer credit.

- *CE Technical Writing (usually English 1010)
- CE English Composition
- CE Technical Writing
- CE Academic Writing
- CE Creative Writing
- CE Communications

Mathematics

A minimum of 6 credits is required in this category. B- grade or higher to transfer credit.

- *CE Statistics
- CE Intermediate Algebra (usually 1050)
- CE Calculous
- CE Trigonometry

Human Behavior and Social Science

A minimum of 6 credits is required in the category. C- grade or higher to transfer credit.

- CE Psychology

- CE Human Growth and Development
- CE Sociology
- CE Abnormal Psychology
- CE Cultural Anthropology
- CE Organizational Behavior
- CE Macroeconomics
- CE United States History

Humanities and Fine Arts

A minimum of 6 credits is required in this category. C- grade or higher to transfer credit.

- CE Religion
- CE Introduction to Philosophy
- CE Western Civilization
- CE Foreign Language

Upper-Division Electives

A minimum of 3 credits of any additional upper-division elective course(s). Other Electives Course Semester Credits. C- or higher grade to transfer credits. Here are some examples of ones that could be helpful to you in your nursing career:

- CE Nutrition
- CE Microbiology

A combined total of 48 General Education and elective credits are required for the BSN Degree.

The above classes are examples of some classes that you can take while in high school. Taking even a few of these classes can give you a great jump start to your college career. If you do not take any of these CE courses while in high school, you will be able to take them while attending Nightingale College.